

LIST OF PUBLICATION OUTLETS – SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES

PREAMBLE

Faculty members and students are encouraged to publish in the listed journals below. The list is expected to be reviewed periodically. Faculty members and students who wish to publish in journals other than the ones listed, should consult their heads of Department and/or senior colleagues in their fields.

Journals have been grouped into two tiers i.e. Tier One and Tier Two. A combination of factors has been used in categorizing the journals, and they include:

- i. The journal's popularity among faculty members:
One indicator is the impact factor of the journal. Also, familiarity (by senior members of staff) with the quality of papers the journal carries has been considered.
- ii. The profiles of members of the journal's editorial board and the thoroughness of the editorial process involved in getting a paper into the journal.
- iii. The journal's priorities in relation to our kind of research interests. This is where e.g. regional consideration comes in.

The Journals have been further put into three large groups:

- LITERARY AND CULTURAL STUDIES
- LINGUISTICS AND LANGUAGE STUDIES
- JOURNALS BELONGING TO BOTH GROUPS and
- LANGUAGE-SPECIFIC JOURNALS

Also included is a list of ACADEMIC PUBLISHERS used by faculty members of the School of Languages.
